of Selma, who was arrested last night by Sheriff McSwain upon telephonic instructions from Sheriff Harrison of Cordell, Okla., stopped over in Fresno today en route to his home.

Harrelson was taken back to Oklahoma to answer to a charge of bank robbery. He was acquitted. The arrest of Harrelson is a big political fight between Selma and Cordell. The Oklahoma sheriff's opponents are fighting the case against him. Harrelson had been in Selma but a short time before his arrest. He announced today that he had returned to prove his innocence to the Selma community. He intimated that a big damage suit may be filed against Hutcherson.

YOUTH ADMITS THE SHOOTING.

William Clement of Redding Says He Killed Landis.

Shoulders Blame for Death of His Mother's Slayer.

Other Men Accused Exonerated by His Confession.

BY A. P. WIRE TO THE TIMES.

REDDING (Cal.) July 20.—William Clement, arranged here today for the murder of William G. Landis, who killed Clement's mother, Mrs. W. G. Bradford, completely exonerated the two other men accused with him, in his confession, the full text of which was made public today for the first time by Dist. Atty. Chenoweth, when the three appeared for a preliminary examination. Dan Thompson and Marcus A. Griffith are the other men accused.

Landis, who was a merchant of Buckeye, a small mining town near Redding, shot and killed Mrs. Bradford, May 11, after an altercation growing out of a disagreement over business matters. Landis was shot from ambush and killed July 15, while driving from Redding to Buckeye. Clement later confessed to having committed the crime.

SLAYER'S STATEMENT.

His statement is in part as follows: "I want to say that I am the man who did this job. I shot W. G. Landis, and nobody else who was arrested was implicated in any way whatever. Dan Thompson and Marcus A. Griffith nothing to do with it. I am the man who is responsible for the whole business."

"I bought the gun from Griffith a long time ago and paid him money for it. I bought it since the killing of my mother. It must have been in the month of June that I bought it. Griffith bought it from me. I took it to Griffith. It had been there all the time. He did not tell Griffith anything about having shot Landis. Griffith, as I stated before, is absolutely innocent of any connection with this proposition."

"When I bought the gun from Griffith I had in mind this affair, in a way; that is, I had decided that I would try to kill Landis. I had decided to kill him. I did not tell Griffith what I had in mind."

INFORMS THOMPSON.

Clement explained that he had returned to Griffith after the shooting and then had gone to Quartz Hill and told Thompson what he had done.

"I don't really feel ashamed of it," his statement continued. "I know how my mother was murdered, and I killed the man and that is all there is to it. I am guilty and I am willing to acknowledge it. I don't want to see an innocent man punished for anything I have done. Neither Griffith nor Thompson knew what I was going to do prior to my doing it."

Dist. Atty. Chenoweth said he had gathered much important evidence tending to discredit Clement's statement that he alone was concerned in the crime and that he expected the two other men to be held. It is expected that the preliminary examination will continue three days.

BOY SHOT BY CAMPERS.

Son of Stockton Man Receives Serious Wound in Leg While Playing Tents of Strangers.

STOCKTON (Cal.) July 20.—J. C. Harding, Jr., the young son of J. C. Harding, a prominent resident of this county, was shot last night near Lodi by campers of unknown identity. The sheriff has been furnished with a description of the camp wagon from which the shot was fired and his deputies are searching the country for the shooter. The boy was taken to a local sanatorium. He is badly wounded in the leg.

According to his story he, together with a number of other boys, passed the camp about midnight. Someone in front of the party, whom the boy does not know, threw a cord at the campers, and the reply was a shot.

MAY PERMIT RESIGNATION.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Representatives Graham and McCoy of the House Judiciary Committee, members of the sub-committee which investigated the charges against Federal Judge Hanford, returned from Seattle today and predicted that the judge would be allowed to resign without being tried on impeachment charges. They declared no agreement had been made with the judge that he should escape trial by resigning. The full committee will meet tomorrow.

CHICAGO, July 20.—Details of the plan for the dissolution of the National Packing Company were submitted today by United States Dist. Atty. James H. Wilkinson. REAL BOXING FETE.

Hogan and McFarland and Attill and Murphy Lure the Fight Fans to Fresno.

BY A. P. WIRE TO THE TIMES.

FAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—With a clash between "Old Round" Hogan and Tommy McFarland tomorrow night and a 30-round bout next Saturday afternoon with the former featherweight champion, Abe Attill, and Tommy Murphy of New York as the principals, the followers of the fighting game have an interesting week before them.

Hogan is a sensational performer and follows up hard any advantages gained at the start. McFarland, while a youngster, is gritty to an unusual degree, besides possessing the knack of hitting hard equally with both arms. The bout is for fifteen rounds. Attill never worked more consistently in his life than for his coming fight. He is not only a boxer but a fighter.

SLEUTHS ON TRAIL.

Ball Players Have Nurses Now Who See That They Go to Bed at Proper Hours.

BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.), July 20.—[Special Dispatch.] Every member of the Indianapolis American Association baseball team has a detective following him night and day as a result of a recent order from Sol Meyer, the new owner of the club. As a result of the order, Charles O'Leary, the former Detroit infielder, resigned the management of the team and Charley O'Day of Springfield was appointed in his place.

O'Leary declined to be a party to the innovation, but Meyer insisted upon having his way. The detectives are especially ordered to report any player who remains out of bed after the usual training hours or who indulges in any great excess in amber field.

As a result of Meyer's order, he has had to get a new player, some of the regular men absolutely refusing to play under the new conditions.

ART EXHIBIT AT MONROVIA.

Wonderful Paintings, Some of Them Worth Fortunes, Shown by Residents of the Football Town.

MONROVIA, July 20.—The spacious home of Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Pottenger was the scene of a garden fête and art exhibition today under the auspices of the Federation of the Parent-Teacher Association.

The grounds were thrown open at 3 o'clock, and were thronged until a late hour. Myriads of varicolored electric lights and chimes, lanterns, were festooned through the trees and the booths were gay with flags and bunting. A large space surrounding the fountain was devoted to the ice cream booth in charge of Mrs. F. A. Biles, assisted by Mrs. Woodland and Mrs. Bynum. Scores of tables were scattered through the grounds beneath the oaks, at which coffee, cake and ice cream were served. Mrs. Robert Fleming served the coffee, assisted by Mrs. H. Calder, Mrs. Nellie Wickham and Mrs. Rogers. The punch booth, in charge of Mrs. J. N. Petrie, assisted by Misses Van Valen, Willett and Hazenup, and the candy, with Mrs. S. E. Sanger, Misses Black, Uhl, Burr, Barber and Pollard dispensing sweets, made up the group of refreshment booths.

Mrs. J. Allen Munro and Mrs. Charlotte Besmer in a mystical and oriental mood beneath a spreading oak told of boundless wealth, handsome lovers and other romantic good things in store for those with the necessary silver coin to cross the palms.

The art exhibition, which occupied the entire lower floor of the house, was a notable feature of the day. Valuable works of art, all of them owned by Monrovia residents and was in charge of Mrs. F. M. Pottenger and Mrs. George Munro.

The Pottenger collection, in itself a most valuable one, includes the remarkable picture recently purchased by Dr. Pottenger, a sale in Los Angeles for $100, which has been pronounced by critics whose judgment cannot be questioned to be a genuine Verboeckhoven worth $25,000. A portrait by Hillebrand, Van Haarlem, painted between 1550 and 1600, owned by Miss Katherine McManaman, who is herself an artist with many pictures in this exhibition, is another of the rare old paintings to be shown. Between 100 and 150 different subjects are exhibited and include works by Adams Du Nubla, Renfer Gerardin, Woudt, Reubens, a hellish factor in the family of nations. It is only fair to the dead Emperor to say that also under him the question of Japan and the United States going to war over any question now on the horizon was settled by an emphatic statement cabled to President Taft at a time when "lingoes" in this country were seeking to force a counterfeit cause of irritation.

Perhaps no American in public life is better fitted than President Taft to measure the position the Mikado occupied in international affairs. It has been doubted whether Mutsuhito was more than a figurehead in that wonderful government in the Far East. "No one," says President Taft, "who knows intimately the history of Japan in recent years will deny to Mutsuhito the real leadership of his people."

Under him Japan became a world power and a hellish factor in the family of nations. It is only fair to the dead Emperor to say that also under him the question of Japan and the United States going to war over any question now on the horizon was settled by an emphatic statement cabled to President Taft at a time when "lingoes" in this country were seeking to force a counterfeit cause of irritation.

The china exhibit, in charge of Mrs. Bradford Arthur, included some rare miniatures owned by Mrs. George King and hand-painted china, the work of Mrs. Arthur's pupils, Miss Edna Chess and Miss Pearl Post. The curio exhibit was upstairs and was guarded by Mrs. E. A. Graves and Mrs. Alice Castille. A rare rose-point robe and bridal veil over 100 years old, Mrs. George King's, and Mrs. Pratt, many antique brasses and linens hand-woven, Indian baskets and pottery, were shown. A rare invitation to a dinner given by George Washington to the grandfather of Mrs. Alice Castille, made up a collection unusually interesting. Mrs. E. P. Sence owns one of the two copies of the emancipation proclamation in existence, which was a part of this exhibit.

The contributors included Mrs. Snow, Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. Patrick Davies, Miss Helen Doust, Mrs. Butts, Dr. Sanger, Mrs. A. W. Kettle, Mrs. C. H. Reid, Mrs. Porter, Mrs. Maxwell, Mrs. W. B. Smith, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Newcomb, Mrs. North, up and Mrs. Graham. The Monrovia orchestra furnished the music and the underwriter was pronounced a decided success.

LIGHT FROM THE EAST ON THE LIVING ISSUES.

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The following editorial comments on topics of the hour are printed in eastern papers:

OHIO FACTIONALISM.

DIFFERENCES THAT LINGER.

[New York Press, July 20:] What has happened in Ohio politics—the refusal of the Republican nominee for Governor to run because he thought he was chosen as a harmony candidate but finds his party will not unite on him—shows that factional differences, too long and too bitterly continued, will not disappear, as some folks like to think, with the selection of a ticket.

GODDESS MUMBLES.

TREMBLING BY REQUEST.

[New York Sun, July 20:] It seems like echoes from the land of spirits to find Col. Henry Watterson shaking his faded, tattered banner at the citadel of protection and to hear him shout the old battle shout.

MUTSUHITO.

PRESIDENT TAFT'S ESTIMATE.

[New York Herald, July 20:] The Emperor of Japan is dead. Yoshitoh, his son, reigns in his place. The abdication of Mutsuhito and his reign is the history of modern Japan. Under him the awakening became a real awakening.

Under him Japan became a world power and a hellish factor in the family of nations. It is only fair to the dead Emperor to say that also under him the question of Japan and the United States going to war over any question now on the horizon was settled by an emphatic statement cabled to President Taft at a time when "lingoes" in this country were seeking to force a counterfeit cause of irritation.

LIUT. BECKER'S ARREST.

NOT RELATED TO EVIDENCE.

[New York World, July 20:] The arrest and arraignment of Lieut. Charles Becker on a charge of murder in the first degree is a startling development in the Rosenthal case which has so stirred the city and drawn the attention of the nation. It follows confessions from one or more of those in custody on complicity charges. It is a case related to the Rosenthal case, placed him under suspicion of being a beneficiary of the lawlessness of the dead man and his associates.

We can only hope now that the Mayor is again shocked, and shocked into a tremendous energy, not of language against "corrupt newspapers," but of action in having this case searched to the bottom.

Standard Fullerton Wildcat Showing Oil.

Five Out of Seven Wells in Tried Locations.

Activity Pronounced in the Doheny Fields.

Encouraging indications are now being laid in a couple of the five wildcat wells which the Standard is drilling in the Fullerton field. Although nothing definite can be learned as to its possibilities, a well in the Coyote Hills, at a distance from other producers, has had some showings of oil. It is also reported that there has been a showing of oil in the Stearns well.

Of the seven wells being drilled by the Standard in the Fullerton district, only two on the Emery lease are in showing like proven territory. The company has a number of leases in the field and is testing the whole district pretty thoroughly. It is quite probable, however, that some of the wells will not mature into good producers, but they will have the effect of proving up considerable territory.

Since the Standard has acquired the latter lease in the Whittier district, it seems that the course is to be pushed there. The Anchor company drilled a well to a considerable depth but did not succeed in getting any appreciable quantity of oil. The Standard is going to erect a rig and try the extensive holding out. The result of this experimental drilling is pending.

Fields Look Promising.

J. C. Anderson, vice-president of the American Petroleum Company and the American Oilfields Company, has just returned from a tour of the oil fields.

He visited the Coalinga, Midway and Lost Hills districts, and reports that Doheny properties are showing most promising results.

Two wells in section 8, 20-15, Coalinga, are in oil sand, and will probably come in next week. Wells No. 27 and 28 are about 2400 feet in depth. Well No. 24 has been cemented, and should be drilled in within a week or ten days. Four other wells on this section are drilling at depths ranging between 260 feet and 1600 feet.

Wells Nos. 29 and 30, in section 20, and No. 17, in section 15, 20-15, are also nearing completion. All of the above wells are in the Coalinga district.

The American Oilfields Company is running five strings of tools, and three of the wells are due to arrive at the completion stage soon. One of these is on section 22, 12-23, the other on section 21, 22-24, and the third on section 22, 22-24.

Central Oases New Era.

Well No. 24 of the Central Oil Company, which has been drilling at 2000 feet, has entered oil formation. Believed about one-third of a mile toward the north from the other wells, No. 24 will extend the producing area of the company considerably. Well No. 11, which has been nearing completion during the past week, so far as the pump and looks good for 60 to 100 barrels a day. Well 31 is in oil at 2100 feet. No. 27 is in oil drilled at 1600 feet and looks as if it would turn out to be a good producer.
It is reported that, owing to the cut which was made in the dividends of the Central Oil Company, some enterprising broker practically offered to sell the company. It has been learned that the Central has no intention whatsoever of selling it.

Murphy in New Territory.

The Murphy Oil Company, which has holdings near the Central, in the Whittier district, is drilling two wells in new territory and has had very good indications of oil. Well No. 26, which is down 4500 feet, has already drilled 400 feet of oil sand but is drilling deeper strata. No. 27 is down 2100 feet. One well in the Murphy property has now been pumping 200 barrels a day for nearly seven years.
In the Coyote Hills the Murphy is about to start well No. 7. No. 6, which recently had a terrific blow-out which lasted about nine hours, and sifted mud and rocks over quite an area, has been cleaned out and is again being drilled. This well struck the largest gas pocket which has ever been encountered in the Coyote Hills, although there is considerable gas in all the wells drilled in this section.
No. 2 has had showings of both oil and gas.

New Developments.

The drillers plan to resume operations on the Chicago-Barco Company's well and the Kramer Consolidated, near Barstow, between the 1st and the 10th of August. The drills have passed through small seams of oil-bearing sand, and it is expected that a flow of high-grade oil will be encountered a little lower down.
The great gusher of the Pacific
Crude Oil Company, on section 22, 21-23, which was on fire early in June, is still flowing at the rate of 7500 barrels a day.

Drainage was placed in well No.
1 of the Taft Oil Company, section 23, 22-23, to get rid of an obstruction, but the drillers were unable to land the case. The shot was placed at 1275 feet and the casing was side-tracked. Formerly this well was a good producer.

The Standard Oil Company, in well
No. 8, on section 26, 21-22, entered a gas pocket at 2100 feet. The roaring of the gas could be heard a mile away. Drilling will go ahead.

Good progress is being made on well No. 12, section 21, 22-23, of the Indiana and Colonial Development Company, which took over the Mountain Girl and other properties of The General Petroleum Company has perforated two wells at 700 and 800 feet in the Rehrig district.

35 First Contest Pictures FREE

With The Times Booklovers' Catalogue of 4500 Titles

In securing a Times Booklovers' Contest catalogue and, with it, the seven certificates redeemable for the first 35 pictures, contestants are entering this great game by the easiest route. Those just starting, who have not saved or seen all the pictures published thus far, secure with their catalogue certificates good for all the pictures they need—and more, too. Those who have saved the pictures from the first are fortunate also in securing duplicates to replace pictures soiled or torn.

The catalogue itself, of course, is the main interest, for among its pages of titles are the 77 correct ones. This is the contest editor's official catalogue, and from it are selected all the titles represented by the 77 pictures. Thus the 77 correct titles are to be found in the catalogue.

FOLLOWING is the great prize list for the winners in The Times Booklovers' everybody. The list invaluable scholarships in the best private schools of California.

Rules That Will Govern The Times Booklovers' Contest

The contest is open to everybody. Times employees and members of their families are barred. Daily for 77 days will be published in The Times a picture representing the title of a book, one each day. Beneath this picture will be a coupon to fill in with the name of the book and the author, together with name and address of entrant.

Cut out the picture and coupon, filling in the book title and author's name, writing your name and address neatly and plainly in the place provided.

No restrictions are placed on the manner in which answers to pictures are secured. Each picture represents the title of one book only.
If you are not certain of your solution you may send in one to ten answers to the picture. NO MORE THAN TEN ANSWERS WILL BE AC-CEPTED TO A PICTURE. Incorrect answers will not count against contestants if correct answer is also given. And put one answer to each picture and coupon. Extra coupons must be secured and used for extra answers. All answers to each picture must be kept together in compiling your set.

Additional pictures and coupons may be obtained at The Times office, by mail or by person. Answers will not be accepted unless they are properly filled out on the coupons appearing beneath each picture. It is necessary that pictures be sent in with the answers in order that all answers may be uniform.

When you have all 77 answers, fasten them together and bring them or mail them in a neat flat package—not folded or rolled—to The Times office, addressed "BOOKLOVERS' CONTEST EDITOR." Prizes will be awarded contestants sending in the largest number of correct solutions.

In the event of two or more persons having the same number of correct solutions, the person using the smallest number of extra coupons in his set of answers will be declared the winner. In the event of two or more persons having the same number of solutions correct and using the same number of coupons, awards will be made on the basis of neatness.

More than one prize will not be awarded to any one family at the same address, but each member of the family may enter the contest and submit a complete set.

Only one complete set (comprising not more than 10 answers to any one picture) of answers may be submitted by a contestant. Awards will be made strictly according to the merit of each separate list. The name of more than one person must not be written on any one coupon.

All answers will be considered on their merits. The first set filed will have no preference over the last set filed; provided only that answers must be filed within the time specified after the last picture has appeared.

The awards will be made by the Contest Editor and three well-known citizens whose names will be announced later.

The correct answers to the series of pictures will be filed with a local trust company or bank a week previous to the close of the contest.

Letters to the contest may be made at any time. All communications or letters of inquiry concerning the contest should be addressed to the Booklovers' Contest Editor, The Times.

Summer reading! You often hear the expression; and the thought occurs, "What is the difference between summer reading and any other kind of reading?"

summer reading suggests a book to read in a shady nook with a book and a glass of lemonade. The book is open to the title page, and the reader is looking at the title page. The title page is the first page of the book, and it is the page that the reader is looking at. The title page is the first page of the book, and it is the page that the reader is looking at. The title page is the first page of the book, and it is the page that the reader is looking at.

Different reading, this, from the reading of history by means of which we attempt to fix upon the main lines and dates, or to follow the logical sequence of events. Different from the reading of foreign languages which tax perpetually the memory and demand close attention.

and yet, "summer reading" need not necessarily be trashy reading. In fact, many of the most popular books make it a point to bring the reader to this time of relaxation. When vacation invites people to leisure, the best stories, the most interesting books, make a point of placing on sale during this time, a collection of novels.

"REFORM" PLAN IS REPUDIATED.
M. and M. Directors Against Telephone Scheme.

Promoters' Figures Disputed by Companies.

Their Plans as Outlined in Circular Letters.

Following an investigation of the Telephone Reform Association, which was recently organized with the announced purpose of eliminating one of the telephone systems in this city, the directors of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association yesterday decided that the scheme is not worthy of support. The following resolutions were passed:

"Whereas, a so-called Telephone Reform Association has been launched in this city and solicitors have been sent out to obtain memberships at not less than $5 per member; and

"Whereas, in such soliciting the false information has been given that the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association has endorsed or would endorse the scheme; therefore

"Be it resolved by the board of directors of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association that after careful investigation we feel justified in advising our members and the public that the Telephone Reform Association is unworthy of our endorsement and the support of our organization."

This decision was reached without considering the merits of a single telephone system. The action of the association is in the general line of public protection.

F. C. Garretson, E. B. Harris and E. M. Haskell are named as officers of the Telephone Reform Association. They have been sent out to secure members. It was stated at yesterday's meeting of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association that the solicitors received 10 percent of the "membership dues" collected. The circulars do not explain just how the balance of the money is to be used.

Some of the statements made in the circular letters to telephone subscribers are in wide conflict with facts obtained from the records of the telephone companies. The published scheme is to put one or the other of the telephone companies out of commission by having a large number of telephone users withdraw their patronage. This plan is to be used in case an amicable arrangement for inter-connection of the systems cannot be forced.

Garretson says there are 140,000 telephones exclusive of switchboards and that the double phone system would require 280,000 lines. The circular letters assert that the people of this vicinity are paying $1,000,000 a month and that this expense can be reduced one-half.

The records of the telephone companies show that the monthly receipts for the month of June were $225,000 to $230,000, of which less than 15 percent represents duplicates.

Officials of the telephone companies say that the plan is at all times at the disposal of the men who are in charge of the system and that the job of effecting a one-telephone system is too big to be undertaken so clumsily.

President Case of the Home Telephone Company said yesterday: "If one company should be eliminated it would be a disaster to the city. Consolidation of the two companies is impossible for the reason that the telephone system contains a chaos which positively forbids consolidation."

Two plants are inadequate, at this time, to take care of the business. The Home company is 3000 orders behind and the Pacific Telephone Company has 2100 applications which have not been filled.

SAYS ASKED STEFFENS TO LEAVE HIM OUT.

Darrow Testifies Regarding Settlement of McNamara Case, Trying to Show There Was No Occasion for Bribing Juror Lockwood—Explains Checks Given Franklin and Large One Cashed in San Francisco.

IN MAKING a settlement of the McNamara case I told Lincoln Steffens to leave me out. He told me it was quite all right and I never in my practice had I allowed my own interests to supersede those of my client," declared Clarence Darrow yesterday in the closing hour of the session before Judge Hutton and jury. The defendant, who is charged with jury bribery, tried to show in his own lawyer-like way that there was no occasion to bribe Lockwood, for the settlement had been virtually reached. He made an apparently strong point of the fact that Franklin and Harrington knew nothing of the negotiations and that the fact did he take his associates into the secret.

"We felt there was no way to win the McNamara case," said the witness with a touch of regret in his voice. "It was the same feeling that a doctor has when he realizes that his patient is dying. I wanted to save my clients' lives if possible. I knew it would be difficult. Many lives had been lost in the explosion of the Times Building and public sentiment ran high. When Steffens proposed his plan to interest the business men in November 28 I had no great hope, but by the end of the week the District Attorney was ready to compromise, holding off for a full sentence for 2 1/2 years."

Darrow told virtually the same story as did Steffens, but he told it better, and it made an apparent impression upon the audience. Spectatorship was rife as to the effect upon the jury, but that circumstance will not be known until about some two weeks hence.

Darrow told of the closing of the negotiations for the plea of guilty, and said that the other lawyers as well as prominent Darrow and Harrington, with the prominent labor union leaders before the final plea was taken. Darrow said he did not want to think of himself as a traitor, but that it might hurt him in the end, and he thought it was for his clients and their lives. "Let us prevent the shedding of blood," the witness said he told his associates.

Rogers got into several altercations with Asst. Dist. Atty. Ford over objections offered by the latter. The witness wanted his star witness to tell his story in his own impressive, gripping way, and the interruptions of Ford hit into Rogers' spirit, like a curb into the mouth of a snorting steed. He chafed and resented before the court, and insisted that what he characterized as "high and puerile" objections be stopped for the defense.

Darrow, undisturbed by the occasional sparks flying between the lawyers, sat somewhat wearily in his chair, putting in deft touches here and there to add to his own story and deflect from that formerly told by Franklin, Harrington, Biddinger and others of the prosecution.

Darrow denied he ever discussed Franklin's arrest with Harrington or said: "My God, if he speaks I am ruined."

"It doesn't sound like me," said Darrow, with a queer little twist of his mouth.

Rogers repeatedly declared to the court that he wanted to show a motive to bribe any juror, and for this purpose he asked a number of questions touching upon the subject. Darrow insisted that he had every reason to believe that the negotiations would be successful, and with such a state of mind it would have been the height of folly to have tried to bribe any juror even if his conscience and ethics would have permitted such a course.

Darrow spent little time upon the Dickman incident. The young hotel clerk was not under subpoena, he said, was in another case, and he was not under subpoena. The witness saw nothing unethical in trying to get the man to Chicago of election until wanted as a witness for the defense.

Att. Gen. The breaking of the continuity of Darrow's remarks put Rogers in a passion. He characterized the objections as "puerile and rotten."

Capt. Fredericks said that if counsel for the defendant did not observe court rules it was his duty to interrupt the testimony of any witness and Darrow was on the witness stand in exactly the same position as anyone else.

Judge Hutton said: "Gentlemen, this court is amazed at the heated discussion. It arose from a motion to strike out a portion of the witness' testimony. We should proceed more expeditiously."

Rogers replied to the judge that Ford was trying to break up the continuity of witness' remarks "by puerile and boyish objections." Ford asked the court to rebuke counsel for making such statements. After this was done, the trial proceeded.

Darrow was permitted to tell how Bain impressed him as a juror and how he answered the questions propounded to him. He then went on to say that he did not remember A. C. Krueger, except as his name came out in the present case, and never employed Frank Fowler in any way.

"I may have met Fowler in the courtroom, as I did many other lawyers," said the witness. "By the way, as I know he never went to see Krueger."

THE LITTLE DINNER. Darrow explained the little dinner at the Alexandria with Lincoln Steffens one night in November in a manner contrary to the previous testimony of Franklin. He said when the venue list was drawn that morning he paid little attention to it, as he believed the defense was on the eve of compromise. However, when Franklin telephoned to him in the afternoon, he said he told his investigator to come to the hotel and get the list. He said he never told Franklin to hurry or to telephone to any of the prospective jurors.

"I was pretty sure none of them would be needed," continued the witness. "Of course I couldn't tell Franklin that. I allowed him to go ahead and I think I told him I would try and get him some help."

"Did you know anything about Juror Lockwood?" asked Rogers. "I might have had my attention called to him as a juror," replied the witness. "No doubt there was a report. Franklin made many reports to me about the various jurors, though of course I know what has been claimed in the matter. I have never talked about corrupting Lockwood or any other juror."

"Did you give Franklin $1000 on the morning of November 28?" asked the chief counsel for the defense.

"I certainly never did," said Darrow, looking at the jury. "He was then told to tell in his own words what did occur on the morning of November 28."

Darrow first told about coming to town in a summer-boulevard. He said he did not remember seeing Frank Wolfe on board, but did remember meeting him at the hotel and when he was arrested. The two then walked down Second to the Higgins building, said the witness, and first entered Wolfe's clipping bureau. From there the two passed into Darrow's office, talking about the Harriman campaign.

"I was trying to suggest some ways Harriman could get some votes or the other," said the witness. "I did not see Franklin at all. The telephone bell rang. Somebody asked me to go to Harriman's headquarters on a matter of importance. I started south on Main street."

As he walked along, the witness said, he glanced across the street and saw Franklin, Detective Browne of the District Attorney's office, and other men he did not know. He started across the street, possibly to talk with Franklin about some political matter, but he was stopped by Detective Browne, who was about to place Franklin under arrest.

"I did not say a word to Franklin," he testified. "I met Browne as he has described and doubtless used most of the words he said I did. My whole thought was that arrest would injure the negotiations."

SAN FRANCISCO CHECK. Darrow said that he never had a safe-deposit box and that in order to get money he was always obliged to draw upon one of his two accounts. Having made a specific denial of any bribery on the day in question, Rogers asked the witness to explain the $10,000 check in a suspicious manner.

Darrow said the explanation was very simple. When he first came out here he had a secret account with the State Building Trades Council. He talked the McNamara case over with him and the council agreed to reimburse him for expenditures made for witnesses and investigations. Darrow said he promised to give him some money. When the time came he could, he handed Tevittme a $10,000 check drawn on the Riggs National Bank of Washington, D. C.

Darrow said he did not know what Tevittme did with his money. He certainly got some of it. He said he could not understand how Harrington could even think of swearing that he (Darrow) displayed a check on the brilliantly-lighted porch of his rented home on North Bonnie Brae street. The porch was the one exposed to view from several sides. He remembered Harrington was up to the porch and saw the check. He said it was absurd to say that he displayed the check in his home, as he would use the money to "get" jurors.

Darrow's direct examination will be concluded today.

EXTRADITION DEFIED. On the ground that sufficient evidence to make probable cause had not been adduced United States Commissioner Van Dyke yesterday ordered the release of Quirino Limon, for whom the Mexican government asked extradition on a charge of murder. Willard Andrews, representing the late Magistrate, appeared for Limon, who was accused of the killing of Juan Rios at Mexicali in April, 1911. The decision was greeted with a mild demonstration.

MANY COME, FEW REMAIN. Four Hundred Contraband Chinese Arrested in Eighteen Months and Nearly All Are Deported. According to the annual report of Capt. Charles T. Connell, local immigration inspector, there have been more than 400 arrests of contraband Chinese during his incumbency, about a year and a half. Of this number it is estimated that at least 90 per cent. have been deported, either by direct action of the United States Commissioners or by departmental warrants, the latter method usually proving the more expeditious.

To the effective of the immigration service a recommendation has been made to the Department of Commerce and Labor that the officers be furnished with at least two high-power boats for the pursuit of smugglers and smuggled. The need of such vessels has been apparent for some time, and it is believed that there will be little difficulty in securing the proper appropriation by Congress.

Before the opening of the Panama Canal an effort will be made to have established at San Pedro a detention point similar to that at Ellis Island in the harbor of New York. Such establishments are now maintained at San Francisco, Seattle and Galveston on the southern and western coast.

Capt. Connell has just returned from a week's trip through the East on official business, stopping at Chicago, New York, Boston and Halifax. While away he secured information as to the names of immigrants that will be utilized to advantage in the office here.

SOME BUMP, SOME BUMPED. Miscellaneous Automobile Accidents in Which Few Hurts Are Received—Car Can't Dodge Man. Two autos and three physicians figured in three accidents yesterday in two instances the accidents occurred on South Hill street, one between Third and Fourth, and the other between Fourth and Fifth streets. In two of the cases the names of the injured men were not obtained.

Charles F. Turner, No. 160 East Van Ness avenue, was driving Dr. H. A. Jarvis to the Santa Fe station. An unidentified man ran his bicycle into the rear wheel of the Turner auto, which was thrown violently to the pavement. At a drug store it was learned he was not seriously hurt.

F. B. Taggart, No. 248 North Vermont street, was knocked down by a machine owned by Dr. B. S. Fray, 313 Story Building, driven by his chauffeur. The chauffeur turned the machine in two directions, but each time Taggart stepped in front of it. The man's legs were injured.

Dr. B. S. Fray's car, driven by C. R. Lasher, No. 1212 South Olive street, ran down an unidentified man on Hill between Fourth and Fifth streets. He was not much hurt.

A tip to the wife. You can keep your husband from evening by keeping him in the Times Bookstore's Contest.

KEEP TABS ON SPEEDERS. Traffic Squad Commander Has Plan for Dealing With Law Violators From Other Cities. Assuming that a man or woman from another city caught speeding here may have been arrested for a similar offense at home, Los Angeles, in command of the Traffic squad, has laid before the chief a plan looking to the compilation of speed violations statistics from the principal cities and towns in the southern part of the State.

This information, the lieutenant explains, is intended for use in the Police Court against visitors who have been caught by motorcycle patrol.

Lieut. Butler assumes that a driver won't wait until a violation is reported to the first officer he meets. He allows. He reasons that some of the speeders have been arrested or cautioned before.

Lieut. Butler keeps a record of every traffic ordinance violation. His plan to exchange these statistics with other cities and towns. When a visitor is arrested here, an investigation of the records from other places will show whether the defendant has been arrested before. If a denial is made, and the records contradict such denial, the proof will be produced and the court will be asked to act accordingly.

FORGETFULNESS IS COSTLY. Visitor From San Francisco Leaves Handbag Containing Money and Jewelry, on Car Seat. Theodore Wores's forgetfulness cost his wife a lot of pin money and a number of pieces of jewelry yesterday, valued at $500.

The money, $75 in gold and silver, with a pair of diamond earrings, gold necklace, diamond brooch, gold ring and a pearl stick pin, were in a handsome leather handbag. When the couple left a Moneta-avenue car, Wores left the bag on a seat. Since then all trace of it has been lost.

Wores lives at No. 1725 Buchanan street, San Francisco, and is a guest at the Hotel Alexandria.

Dr. H. S. Crane, No. 805 East Twelfth street, has asked the police to assist him in locating the man who looted his trunk and stole about $100 worth of clothing and currency. The stolen entrance into the home through a rear door.

SHE'S NOT PRESENT. Because a single witness, said to be a comely young woman, failed to appear, the county grand jury spent all yesterday morning cooling its heels. Deputy District Attorney Jones was on hand to conduct the investigation, and two witnesses, Attorney Shali and Millard Pineda, sat outside the door, waiting to be called. The next session will be held Thursday and there may be trouble for the fair witness if she fails again to present herself.

Brick Falls on Man's Arm and He Goes to Hospital to Have Broken Bones Set. The old nursery rhyme, "What goes up must come down," jangled in W. T. Carlton's ears at the Receiving Hospital yesterday afternoon while Dr. Carter was dressing Carlton's broken right hand.

A brick that had been hoisted to the second story of a building at Seventh and Broadway fell to the ground. It struck Carlton on the hand, breaking several of the bones and lacerating the flesh.

Thomas Cappelco, 38 years old, of No. 2214 South Union avenue, fell off a street car almost in front of the Pacific Electric building yesterday. He sustained a two-inch laceration on the chin, a one-inch cut on the head, and body bruises and contusions. He was sent home after treatment at the Receiving Hospital.

TROUBLE OVER POST CARDS.

Mutual Suits Over Name Printed on Shrine Week Pictures Devoiced Complications and Hard Feelings. People who bought photo post cards of the festivities of Shrine Week probably did not trouble themselves about the name of the photographer printed on the cards. Nevertheless it brought Julius J. Hecht and George L. Prince into Justice Reeve's court yesterday in a suit for mutual damages. Hecht wanted to collect $200, while Prince thought his reputation as an artist could not be salvaged of alleged injuries for less than the justice court limit, $250.

The testimony of witnesses showed that during Shrine Week Hecht took pictures and printed 30,000 cards from his negatives, which were put on sale in many of the largest art, book and department stores in the city. He bought 5000 of these cards, then blank, from Earl V. Lewis, a dealer, who had ordered them earlier for Prince. Prince had refused them, although his name was inconspicuously printed upon them.

When Prince found that Hecht had printed these cards and placed them on sale he at once notified different stores to cease selling them at once on pain of suit. The sale was stopped and Hecht's income from them cut off. Attorney Copp, arguing for Hecht, maintained that his client had bought the cards in the open market and that Prince knew Lewis would sell them to the first buyer after the former had refused them. Prince's attorney, John Poole, asserted that his client's reputation as an artist had been damaged.

The case was continued until August 21, when both sides will submit further argument.

by enough to cover the cost of the work. The annual expense of maintaining such an institution will be small as compared with the benefits to be derived therefrom. One great advantage of a municipally-operated public employment bureau would be that persons in need of employment might more readily be brought in contact with positions in other places where labor is needed.

CITY LODGING-HOUSE. While on this subject, I wish to draw your attention to the municipal lodging-house idea. It appears to me that some practicable scheme for the establishment of such an institution, with an eating department, can be worked out, possibly in connection with the plan for a free employment bureau.

PUBLIC MARKETS. Another matter which should be solved by this city at a very early date, if it is to be brought about without entailing an expense as great as to cause widespread objection thereto, is a system of municipally-operated public markets.

The existing market system is not only totally inadequate to the needs of a city of the size of Los Angeles, but it is not in reality a public market system. It would appear to me that no mistake could be made if immediate steps were taken to ascertain the most desirable locations for such markets, the possible expense of their establishment and the most business-like methods of handling them.

I would respectfully recommend that this matter be considered at once, so that if we are to have a municipally-operated public market system that will meet the demands of the public, such a system may be devised before the expense thereof becomes virtually prohibitive.

Los Angeles could establish one or two great public markets now at comparatively small expense, and there is no question that such a market would be a great boon not only to the buying public but to the small producer, and materially reduce the cost of living.

PLANS FOR A "ZOO." The Park Commission is an exceptionally active and useful body, but in spite of the most earnest efforts it has put forth to give us a park system that will add greatly to the future attractiveness of the city, it cannot accomplish the best results without the co-operation of the Council and the citizens. Its most important project at the present time is the establishment of a zoological garden, in which the co-operation of private citizens has been offered. I wish to express the hope that the Council will at the present time take steps to promote this most desirable undertaking.

NO TROUBLE TO ESCAPE. Two Girls Find Front Door of Detention Home Open at Midnight and Leave—Soon Caught.

Pleading earnestly not to be returned to the Detention Home, but to be incarcerated in the County Jail, where they said the heavy steel bars and large locks would prevent their escape, Leola Allison and Marie Long, 16 and 17 years old, respectively, were recommended to the juvenile institution yesterday morning after their arrest in the northern Pacific yards, near River Station, as they were boarding a freight train in an effort to leave the city.

Mrs. Eddy, the matron, seemed surprised when the girls were turned over to her by Patrolman Canto. Although they had been absent from the home for some hours, she admitted they had not been missed. The girls "escaped" from the institution through the back door, about midnight. Less than three hours later they were again in custody.

The Allison girl formerly lived at No. 1212 Brooklyn avenue. She is now serving time on her account. She was arrested on the 4th inst. Marie Long lives in Somerset. She was arrested on the 3rd inst. and held as an important witness in an alleged white slavery case now pending.

The girls, who were caught at 3:30 o'clock in the railroad yards by C. A. Davis, a company special officer, said the temptation to leave the Detention Home was so great, because of the absence of bars and locks, that they could not resist it. Several hours after they retired, they said they got up dressed, and passed out the front door.

GLENDAL NOTE. GLENDAL, July 30.—At a meeting of the trustees of the city last night an ordinance was passed calling an election for the purpose of selecting fifteen freeholders whose duty it will be to prepare and propose a charter to be adopted by the residents of this city. The election was set for September 30.

Plans and specifications were accepted at the meeting of the Glendale grammar school trustees last night for the erection of a new school house to be erected at North Glendale, and work will start on the building at once. It is hoped to have the building ready for occupancy early next term. Preparations are being made to accommodate about 300 pupils.

Mrs. Cora Belle Howes, assisted by her pupils, gave a dramatic recital in the First Presbyterian Church on Cedar street and Broadway, tonight. The programme consisted mainly of favorite short poems of James Whitcomb Riley. Miss Mae Moyer of Los Angeles, a dramatic soprano, rendered several vocal selections.

SAWTELLE. SAWTELLE, July 30.—Merchants and businessmen here last night organized a Board of Trade, the first of its kind in the city's history. Leon Mosser was elected president, F. J. Finch vice-president, Thomas Price treasurer, and H. M. Melnell, City Clerk, secretary. The board, it is understood, will include all of the principal merchants, and will afford protection from peddlers and outside merchants. It will work in harmony with the Commercial Club.

Bids for two new school buildings having been resubmitted, the contract for the erection of the buildings were let last night to Louis Babin, his bid being the lowest. He will commence work at once, and expects to have the structures finished for the opening of the September semester. A one-story frame building will be erected on the grammar school grounds, and a one-story four-room building will be erected on the lot recently purchased on the corner of Arizona and Sixteenth streets.

CHILDREN'S OUTING. REDONDO BEACH, July 30.—The children of the Maud Booth Home of the Volunteers of America were given an outing here today by the Pacific Electric Company. Fifty of the children, ranging from little tots of 2 years to children of 15 years, came this morning and spent the entire day playing in the sand, paddling in the pools of the plunge or riding the joy wheels.

The outing was given by the Volunteers of America and Mrs. Mary Galloway, the matron of the Home, were in charge of the children.

MULOCK ESTATE. The late Mrs. Eliza C. Mulock, who died last Wednesday, left an estate of $55,000, consisting of real estate in San Gabriel and Alhambra, worth $10,000, mortgages, water and mining stock valued at $5000. A petition for letters of administration was filed by Will C. Mulock yesterday. The heir-at-law are Henry D. McDonald, James A. McDonald, Will C. Mulock, Dan C. Mulock and Mary E. Mulock.

ORRICK ADVANCE. According to the petition of the executor under the will of Fannie E. Howe, filed yesterday for final distribution, the old Night and Day Bank at Sixth and Spring streets, sold last January for $17,000, now has a value of $1,000,000. The heirs under the will have received $107,357 in cash, leaving a cash balance of $100,000. Sarah E. Orrick and Fannie C. Orrick, daughters, will receive $100,000 each, and the three sons, Charles E. Orrick, E. C. Orrick and George E. Orrick $17,371 each.

KASE WINS. Attorney Thomas E. Kase, who intervened in the suit of Mrs. Clara Russell Greenlee against the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank to recover a trust fund, figured in the settlement of the matrimonial troubles of her daughter, was awarded judgment yesterday. Houser yesterday. A twenty days stay of execution was granted. Kase claimed a half interest in the deed for professional services in the divorce and separate maintenance suits of the daughter.

ARBITRATORS REPORT. The report of the board of arbitrators of the Moneta Square No. 1 syndicate was filed yesterday. The board of the syndicate is $12,000. Ninety-four lots will be sold among the owners. Ten lots will not be distributed. The number of lots in the original tract was 317.

MAY WORK CURE. Little Lester King, who was abandoned by his mother, an actress, was placed in the custody of Dr. D. J. Sullivan by Judge Wilbur yesterday for medical treatment and ultimately for adoption by the doctor. He effects a cure. Lester has partial paralysis, and Dr. Sullivan believes he can make the boy sound and strong. Lester has been at the Door of Hope, a patient, cheerful little sufferer.

DAMAGE SUIT. Caswell C. Wisdom, an employee of the California Hardware Company, asks $25,000 damages for injuries received on the 18th inst. when he fell down an elevator shaft. He landed in the bottom of the shaft, alleging negligence in leaving the elevator door unguarded.

INCORPORATIONS. California Utilities Corporation, incorporators, C. S. Forney, John Cantara, H. B. Landis, J. M. Parker, D. E. Landis, capital stock, $500,000; subscribed, $500. Pasadena Foundry Company filed notice of removal of principal place of business from Pasadena to Los Angeles.

IN THE INFERIOR COURTS. Young Holland Farmhand Is Held to Answer in Higher Tribunal for Alleged Hold-ups.

Cornelius Haanacker, the 23-year-old Holland farmhand who ran amuck in a sea of crime on the night of the 29th inst., holding up several automobile parties, robbing two pedestrians and entering a house in the western end of the city, was yesterday held to answer in the Superior Court on two complaints in $10,000 bail by Police Judge Williams.

The complaints were sworn to by Charles G. Andrews, one of the autoists held up, and Ivan H. Bailey, one of the pedestrians robbed. Both crimes were committed in the Wilshire district. E. G. Simons, a manufacturer who was in the Andrews machine, also testified against the young man. The defendant made no statement; rather did he offer no testimony in his own behalf.

Expensive Pair of Shoes. A 50-cent pair of women's shoes cost J. H. George, No. 437 Ruth avenue, $100 in the Police Court yesterday. Judge Williams fined him that sum on conviction of shoplifting.

When taken into custody on the sidewalk with the shoes under his coat, George said he was going from one entrance of the store to the other to avoid pushing through the crowds on the inside.

Bessie Brooks of the Nick Harris Detective Agency testified that last December George was arrested in the same store for the theft of a $1.50 pair of gloves.

Refrigerator Comes Quickly. His brain so inflamed from an overindulgence in liquor that he didn't know what he was doing, Robert Weber visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Williams, No. 1219 Santa Fe avenue, Monday night. When denied admittance he kicked in the front door and made violence against Mrs. Williams, who had retired.

"He had a razor in his hand and threatened to cut my throat," testified the woman yesterday. "I only had a pocketknife in my hand and it wasn't open," retorted the defendant.

"Thirty days in the City Jail," was the sentence.

Electricity Prosecution. Pacific Electric attorneys entered a plea of not guilty before Police Judge Frederickson yesterday to a charge of having erected a high voltage pole within thirteen inches of another pole carrying other electric wires.

The complaint charges that in maintaining such a pole at Pico and Mariposa streets there is an infraction of the "lineman's" ordinance. The case will be tried on August 24.

The prosecution of the Pacific Electric is a result of the electricity of a lineman several weeks ago. He accidentally came in contact with the high voltage-wire while working on the other pole.

His Memory Is Poor. Ray R. Salt was bound over to the Superior Court yesterday by Police Judge Frederickson under $500 bail to answer to a charge of having issued a fictitious check on a local restaurant on the 5th inst.

Salt professed not to have a very distinct recollection of having given the check, but did recall that he fell asleep. When the car reached the end of the line he was awakened by the conductor.

STEWART BLOWS AND IS BEATEN.

Cracked for Five Runs in the Sixth Inning.

Brashear Slams Out a Homer in the Fourth.

Fine Fielding Makes Up for Tigers' Defeat.

BY GREY OLIVER.

San Francisco, 6; Vernon, 2.
 Harry Stewart, hero of a hundred baseball battles, tried his high fast ball on the Seals yesterday and they knocked it a dozen different ways. He seemed to have everything and these things are just what the Seals slammed all over the lot.
 Hap Hogan roared over a decision at second base in the sixth inning by which Umpire Wheeler called Howard safe on a steal, and this probably resulted in the Tigers' defeat, for after that decision the Seals cracked Stewart for four singles in a row with two out and made five runs in the inning. These were too much for Henley was at his best and had the Tigers standing on their heads half the time.
 They got but six hits off him and Carlisle made three of these in a triple and two singles. Brashear banged out a home run over the left fence in the fourth inning and Hoop and Litchi singled, but aside from these blows no one bothered Master Henley. Any time any team beats him it has to go some and the Tigers did not travel fast enough yesterday.

Stewart heaved beautiful ball for five innings and but two men got to third base, Hartley in the second on his single and two wild pitches in succession and Henley in the third on his pass, a hit and a hit by pitcher. No chance to win a ball game with such pitching as that, but it was easy to lose one with what occurred in the sixth.

We'll start this for the Seals by hitting a triple to the center fence and kept on running and scored when Brashear made a bad throw to third of the relayed ball. Then Howard walked and stole second and on the decision, Hap Hogan walked timidly out to the ump and made his little timid kick about the ruling.

Hartley fouled to Hoop, much to his disgust, and Gedeon fanned. Then Corhan, Mohler, Berry and Henley singled in succession and before Mundorf made the third out on a fly to Bayless, the Seals had scored five runs. Corhan's double against the left fence and Mohler's single in the eighth made the final run, but Henley had the Tigers' tails twisted off by this time, so this run was unnecessary.

Aside from the hitting of the Seals the big crowd of fans saw some beautiful fielding that paid for the anguish of seeing the Tigers skinned. Mundorf made some great running catches in right field, his grab of Agnew's long fly to center in the second and Hoop's short fly to right in the sixth being particularly good. Kane made a fine run to right in the third to get Berry's fly and Mohler's out of Hoop at second in his attempt to steal was all to the fancy.

You do not often see such good fielding in what proved to be a lopsided game, but the boys were certainly there with it yesterday.

Brashear's homer over the left fence in the fourth was a mighty blow, but unfortunately for the Tigers there was no one on a base at the time. Henley allowed but two singles after this hard knock and the Tigers never even scared him. He was all to the strong. No use trying to beat him when he is this way.

AD NOT MATCHED WITH PACKY.
 Tom Jones stated yesterday that Ad Wolgast is not really matched to fight Packy McFarland.

"I have a private telegram from Ad," he said, "in which he assures me that he has made no such match.

"The Dutchman would be perfectly willing to fight Packy for a clear or for nothing, as far as that goes; but, as a matter of fact, the match has not been made."

MANAGERS DROP FOUR PLAYERS.

Managers Hap Hogan of the Vernon team and Henry Berry of the Los Angeles club swung the big ax yesterday in a startling manner and cut off the heads of no less than four ball players who have been drawing pay from the two clubs for several months.

This action was taken for the purpose of cutting the number of players down to the limit prescribed by President Baum, but at that there seems to be a dispute between Hogan and Berry as to the number of men each team shall carry after August 1.

Hogan released Pitchers Jimmy Whalen and Temple and Outfielder Martinka, while Berry dropped Pitcher Jack Flaster. None of these men were considered necessary to the success of either team.

Bill Reidy, Boss of the Seals, Who threw enough pepper into the losing team yesterday to put over a walloping victory over Hap Hogan.

BAUM TRYING TO KEEP US FROM WINNING FLAG--HAP.

BY GREY OLIVER.

"I THINK President Baum's action in regard to me is rotten, and I cannot imagine why he is picking me out for his displeasure. He is only a figurehead for the league, and I guess all the other teams are sore at me because I get out on the lines and boost my team along to victory."

This was the startling statement of Hap Hogan yesterday in regard to why the league president has seen fit to curb him for his coaching tactics.

"I guess the other teams are afraid the Vernon Tigers will win the pennant, and are howling because I get out on the coaching lines," continued Hogan, wrathfully. "Why, when I was on the Los Angeles team five or six years ago I was told by Henry Berry that I would have to fight the battles of the Angels. Every player in the league made me the goat of the team, and I was kidded from start to finish. Now when I try to get back at some of them they want to have me fined."

"It's a dirty trick, and I cannot see through it, except that all of the other teams are jealous of our success. Something is wrong when they want to stop me from coaching and let everyone else do anything. I'm always hustling for my team and that's what makes some of them sore."

"I'll keep on coaching my team if they fine me every day. I don't care what they do, but I want Vernon to win."

"I will say right now that Vernon will win the pennant. They can't keep us down with all their fines. All of them are sore at us, but that will not do them any good. We are out in front and we are to stay there to the finish, even if we have had some of our good men out of the game for weeks. They can't beat us with all their fines and all the bad decisions of the umpires, and we had an awful had one today when Wheeler called Howard safe at second in the sixth inning.

"I don't see why Baum picks me out to fine me for coaching. I have been in this league for years, and have done everything I could to advance it. I'm proud of it. I've never been guilty of nifty baseball, and I don't want any nifty players on my team. I have kidded lots of players this year, but I have never said anything out of the way to them. A man who cannot stand joshing in baseball had best get out of it. If I get their goat that's hard luck for them. I do not say anything that any of them can take offense at."

"This action of Baum's may be one way of beating the Tigers out of the pennant, but I don't think he can get away with it. We are always in the game, and doing the best we can all the time. We are bound to win, knocking or no knocking."

REAL FISH STORY.
 Hermosa Beach Man Battles Fifteen Hours and Lands a Big Stingaree With Light Tackle.

HERMOSA BEACH, July 30.—All night long and today until noon Charles E. Shaw fought to land a huge stingaree that he hooked from the end of the wharf while fishing for yellow sn. Finally after struggling with the big fish for nearly fifteen hours, Shaw, completely exhausted, beached the stingaree and his brother, V. B. Shaw, waded out and gauged it.

Thinking every minute that the stingaree would give up, Shaw surrounded by eager spectators, kept up the fight, trying to tire out the fish. He had but a light bamboo pole with a twenty-one-strand line and many times during the long battle it seemed that the light tackle would not stand the strain. The full 200 yards of the line was reeled out many times, only to be pulled in again by sheer force by the fisherman. The stingaree did not fight but "loafed" in the sand much of the time, and owing to his great width and fatness seemed to be able to stick in the sand through suction, so that it was a dead weight.

All night long a number of men stayed on the wharf watching Shaw and at daybreak the number increased and several hundred watched the interesting sight all morning. Early this morning Mrs. Shaw carried breakfast to her husband, who rapidly ate while his brother held the line.

Shaw hooked the fish at 9 o'clock last night and it was gauged at 12:30 today. It weighed seventy pounds and measured three feet across. Shaw says he has caught larger stingarees before with a struggle of but two or three hours. A short time ago he caught a Jewfish weighing 300 pounds, which he landed after a fight of four hours. Shaw lives in a cottage at Eleventh street and the Strand.

The feature of the second day of tennis at Hotel Virginia, Long Beach, yesterday was nothing that happened on the courts, but rather the spectacular withdrawal of Marshall Ketchum, the Santa Monica youth, from the tourney. Ketchum is no more in the Long Beach tourney—or any other tourney this summer—if his father has anything to say about it, and it looks as if "Pa" Ketchum has a whole lot to say.

Yesterday morning Ketchum, Sr., went down to Long Beach with, aggressively speaking, the family hook, and having fitted the crook carefully about Ketchum, Jr.'s person, dragged him out to the car line and escorted him back to the quietness of Santa Monica.

The withdrawal of the Santa Monica youth is regretted by all the players and fans at the tourney. He is a popular player. He had been picked to win the junior singles and he also had a big look-in in the men's singles, but his look-in has turned to a "look-out"—for "Pa" Ketchum.

A few days ago Mr. Ketchum left Santa Monica. At that time Marshall had a good job and was working—as little as possible, of course—each day. Last night, Mr. Ketchum returned home and found that his dear son had "jacked up" his job and was playing in another of those pesky tourneys. So Mr. Ketchum went to Long Beach yesterday and—well, Marshall withdrew. It seems, according to Mr. Ketchum, that Marshall already has "chucked" two or three jobs this summer in order to get into the tennis limelight, and Mr. Ketchum is a strong believer in the doctrine of business before pleasure. So Marshall has gone back to the grind and it is likely that we won't hear any more of him in connection with tennis for the remainder of this summer.

Once Marshall Ketchum's partner, will hook up with E. A. Warren in the doubles.

NEWELL PUT OUT.
 Another San Francisco boy jumped into the spotlight yesterday when H. V. D. Johns, who came South for the tourney, beat Kenneth Newell, of U. S.C. 2-3, 3-4, 7-5. Johns has been trained in the school—if there is such a thing—that has turned out Maurice McLoughlin, Willie Johnston and Ella Fottrell, and while Kenneth gave him a mighty hard battle, the young northerner had enough class to pull him out on top. He plays a remarkably steady game for a youngster, and in this respect he far surpassed Newell, who frequently went wild. Johns has

SPORT SLANTS

BY OWEN R. BIRD

With fifty-eight preparatory schools, many colleges and two athletic clubs in the State playing Rugby, it looks like the old game, but Occidental, Pomona and Whittier will put up a strong fight this season, and some of the college boys are really credited with predicting that the American game will come back. What a chance. Pomona and Occidental will import players from the North and East, and the lovers of the sport will be given a good opportunity to see the American game in its best form. The English stuff, but it will never be a strong proposition to import teams from such a distance as Colorado and Oregon as long as there are highly trained teams in on the west side, and these Rugby teams have no expenses.

Joe Shelden of El Paso, Tex., is in the city, and has become so interested with its charms that he has decided to remain here and enter U.S.C. next season. Joe is a bear at the quarter, runs the two-twenty in ten and holds the Arizona record in the century. That is he did these marvellous things at one time, but, as he has been kept in the best of condition, he is expected to be a winner still. Shelden is 22 years old and attended the Pomona Normal School with Charles Belmont and Johnny Lynch two years ago. He was captain of the track team and one of the most sensational runners ever developed in the new State, and his addition to the track team of U.S.C. will be welcomed by the student body.

College circles up in the sage brush country are fused over the possibility of setting another football season, if the college boys are to be allowed to play. The veteran center who has been playing for All-Southern center for the last three years. Gillette has one year to his credit and may return to take graduate work, and if he does will be seen in the games with Denver University, Colorado School of Mines and Occidental.

Herman McPhail, manager, and the "Honey" captain of last year's Occidental Rugby team, are entering the university next fall. McPhail is ambitious to become a lawyer, but he will continue to play Rugby. Just at present the former is recovering from an attack of appendicitis, while the latter is boat building at Redondo.

Senders and Toolan, famous front runners, have announced their intention of trying out for the U.S.C. squad next season. Two such good men are not to be picked up every day.

With the opening of the hunting season in this section of the country, the summer sports are due for a revival and as all those who are coming from the haunts of the fabled rabbit and sportive yellowtail, are to the effect that the hunting and fishing are all to the good, there is bound to be a grand exodus within the next few days of all those who had the call of nature to go forth and have some real sport.

Those who are supposed to know all sections of the country round about, are reporting plenty of cottontail and some of the places from which the reports are especially good are Fernando, Palmdale, Rosamond, Burbank, Redwin, Winville, Lancaster, Calabasas, Newhall, Santa Arion, Whittier and the San Joaquin hills.

Henry Krohn and George Cline have just returned from an outing at New Strength Added.

CAL EWING SECURES NEW INFIELDER FOR SEALS.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 26.—[Exclusive.]
Cal Ewing, president of the San Francisco baseball club, has secured a new infielder for the balance of the season and also looking forward to the coming year in the fall. Ewing, president of the club, announced today that he had purchased from Milwaukee to the American Association, Jimmy Brown. Brown is primarily an infielder, in the local club, although he is also a pitcher. The new man, who is expected to report at once, played thirty-two games with Milwaukee last year and had a batting record of .304.

JEANNETTE CLAIMS JOHNSON'S SHOES.

(A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, July 26.—Jack Johnson's latest announcement that he is through with the fighting game and will leave the championship to be fought out between McVey, Jeannette and Langford, produced a quick response from Dan McKittrick, manager for Jeannette.
"It is not customary in America to claim a pugilistic championship," he said. "I am not seeking to establish a precedent, but I sincerely believe I am justified in claiming the world's title for Jeannette."

KETCHUM WITHDRAWS.

some excellent strokes and he is able to control them. His driving is of a plus variety and the manner in which he sticks the shuttle over the net indicates that he is going to break into first class play. The last game of the match, after both Newell and Johns had broken even with a 3-3 game, was a hum-dinger. Ketchum, however, put up a fierce scrap, but the northern lad was "there" at the critical moments and after each had forced out five games he took the next two and the match.

The veteran Galusha hooked up with Greaser Clover, a grammar school boy, and the "red" took up more than a great before the end of the match. The "kid" got the ball over the net in great shape and the score, 6-1, 6-4, hardly shows how good he was. Joe Ball, Jr., another San Franciscan, took the measure of J. W. Summerville in the men's singles, 3-6, 6-1, 6-2, and then "Bunny" was crowded out of the junior singles by young McCarthy, whose sweater emblems inform anybody in the room that he is a member of the Mt. Washington club, 3-6, 10-8, 6-4. Although twice defeated, Summerville and McCarthy are the only players of the day who figured in two three-set matches.

Miss Ruth Anderson was defeated by Mrs. Earl Stoddard in the women's singles, 6-1, 6-4. Miss Anderson was by no means outclassed. She played a good game against her more experienced opponent. Herickrod excelled in accuracy in placing the ball, steadiness, and in returning and as a result secured the upper hand throughout. In the afternoon, a strong wind blew in from the ocean and it bothered the players a great deal, despite the fact that the wind shields about the court broke the full force of it. There were few people in the gallery to the morning but in the afternoon there was a fair-sized turn-out.

MISS BURNHAM WINS AGAIN.
Miss Beatrice Burnham, who defeated Miss Wellborn on the opening day, again was victorious, disposing of Miss Mabel Newell, 6-1, 6-2. Miss Corinne Stanton beat Miss Mildred Taft, 6-0, 6-4, and from the way things are running there will be a pretty contest in the finals of the women's singles.

Another San Francisco player to survive the second round of the junior singles was W. E. Jones, who beat Mr. Martin, 6-2, 6-3. Play in the men's doubles is to begin today and the mixed round will get under way tomorrow. Also, from now on the playing in the singles events will be better than it has been, as the "wrecking out" process has left only the pick of the big brigade that was entered.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.
Summerville, 11-13, 6-2, 6-1.
Men's open singles: First round—Will Horrell beat Corbett, 6-1, 6-3; E. G. Galusha beat Greaser Clover, 6-1, 6-2; Joe Ball, Jr., beat J. W. Summerville, 6-2, 6-3, 6-2; C. W. Smith beat W. D. Sorer, default; H. V. D. Johns beat Kenneth Newell, 6-3, 3-6, 1-8; Gorham beat Alphonso Bell, default; Pitcairn beat Thode, default; E. Rogers beat Baker, 6-0, 6-1.
Second round—D. A. McNaughton beat E. T. Harrell, 6-2, 6-4; G. E. Jones beat E. G. Galusha, 5-7, 6-3, 6-4; O. B. Marshall beat John Grady, default; C. W. Smith beat Wilson, 6-4, 6-2; Horrell beat Oxnard, default; Gorham beat Pitcairn, default; Hardesty beat Barber, default.

Second round—W. E. Davis beat E. Martin, 6-3, 6-2; Peterson beat McCarthy, 6-4, 6-5, 6-1; Blackstone beat Smith, 11-13, 6-2, 6-1.
Women's special singles: First round—Miss Miriam Palmer beat Miss Dorothea Obermayer, 6-4, 6-4.
Second round—Mrs. Earl Stoddard beat Miss Ruth Anderson, 6-1, 6-4; Miss Corinne Stanton beat Miss Mildred Taft, 6-0, 6-4; Miss Beatrice Burnham beat Miss Mabel Newell, 6-1, 6-2.

ATTELL IN FINE SHAPE FOR FIGHT WITH MURPHY.

Owen Moran Very Sore Over His Treatment by Los Angeles Referee—Wolcott Asks Big Sum to Fight Packey McFarland—Mandot on His Way to This City to Meet Joe Rivers.

[BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 26.—[Special Dispatch.] Promoter Coffroth escorted a number of newspaper writers and sporting celebrities to Joe Attell's camp at Colma to watch his regular indoor exercises. Attell put in forty-five minutes' actual time playing handball, punching the bag and boxing with Tommy McFarland, Jimmy Carroll and Jimmy Walsh. It was a rattling good workout and at the conclusion of the final go with Walsh the ex-champion stepped into his rubber-room and got upon scales to be weighed. He balanced the bar at 128½ pounds, which is the high watermark for him. When he began to get in shape for his other mix-up with Murphy he weighed just 121½ pounds and he did practically nothing for that contest except to get a haircut and a shave.

Attell appears to be in fine trim. If he can go the full twenty rounds at the same pace which he set for twenty minutes of actual glove work he will give the Gothamite the best of all arguments the Irish lad ever has had. So full of pepper was his set to with Jimmy Carroll, who had been requested to come down for the purpose of demonstrating just how fast Attell was, that the fans could not resist the temptation to applaud when Carroll discarded the gloves. Murphy is attending to his knitting over at White's place in Oakland. Tommy is not saying much about claiming that lightweight title, but if he gets past Attell next Saturday the clan Murphy will have one representative sitting in at the game of playing "Challenger the champion."

DANZIG NOT WANTED.
"Hodges of St. Louis is still after me," said Ben Berry yesterday, "to see if I can use Babe Danzig on first base. Babe is now in the Southern League. I don't see how I can do anything for Danzig. Guess I've got a pretty sweet first baseman in Moore and I sure wouldn't replace him with Danzig."

Poor Frank Stammers.

In addition to writing his own show, making its music and mining his own jokes, has to slog the merry-merry through the whole rehearsal process. This is a new-fangled chorus number that you're gazing upon, in process of birth upon the Hamburger Majestic stage. The worried shirt-waisted individual, back of the stand-ups and lay-downs, is Mr. Stammers.

FROM THE MASON TO THE MAJESTIC

BY JULIAN JOHNSON

Frank Stammers, John Barrymore and others of break-hat notoriety, are faded into Quaker solemnity. Clarence Drown, who steals along like the dawn in a Rialto full of noisy clothes and noisier folks, has been unto himself a hat exactly like Wynne's.

Drown has returned from his vacation, in some more wretched with vaudeville problems in the colored, thru-room of the Broadway Orpheum, and threatens momentarily to come forth in his monstrous new headgear.

Those that have seen Wynne's hat can never forget it, but for those who have not, we must describe it, for, as the German philosopher's view came, it is impossible to evolve a conception of it from one's inner consciousness.

It is of Philippine straw, quite large and double. That is, there is a hat inside the hat, and anybody in a hurry, and in particular, can do anything with it, make it assume any shape, and hold, for a given time, any ludicrous position. It can be as long as the family store-keeper for a spring suit-rattling, as flatly wrecked as the ruins of a last-century accordion, or as jauntily wide and up-tipped as a ragging soubrette's champagne for an act-in-one.

Whatever offense against morality and the common law Mr. Drown may become guilty of by wearing this thing, it may at least be said that he is not guilty of importing it himself. It was sent him from Asia—whether by a friend or an enemy he didn't say.

The favorite style of wearing these things, according to Wynne, the only human being who ever dared put one on this side of the big water, is in the shape of a very fat Chinese lantern. One need have no fear of being run down in the street while the hat is in this form, as anything, from an old maid to gasoline, would shy clear up on the sidewalk at such a sight, leaving the monster clear asphalt.

Drown tells me that in the strange land where the donning of such habiliments would not provoke a riot the double straw is a great protection from the sun, as the double roof of a tent is supposed to keep out the super-heat of summer.

Mr. Drown is actually wearing another very passionate hat, a sort of Paradise-Panama surrounded by a belt and a half of leopard-spotted silk, very carefully and artistically lopped around it.

I asked the Orpheum boss if anything happened to him on his play-day.

"Nothing," he replied. "I went to Paso Robles."

"Nothing ever happens, ever has happened, or ever will happen in Paso Robles."

"That's why I went there."

Apart from having European telephones installed on his desk, I know of nothing else to record of the little big man of Western vaudeville.

A dialogue: Charles Pike, a professional producer of passenger-trade: "You might put in a little paragraph saying that the Salt Lake will haul all of Pop Fischer's retiring principals back East."

The Scribe: "Oh, very well." They separate. Mr. Pike hesitates, and turns back.

Mr. Pike: "By the way, if you see Pop, tell him it would be a darned good idea if some of 'em really did go that way."

The Scribe: "Oh, very well."

Other Morosco's first play has been discovered. It is a melodrama, called "A Kentucky Feud."

It was written during the first year of the manager's residence in Los Angeles.

It reposes under dust and some old books in a lower drawer of his desk. No one has read it for nine years. Probably, no one will.

He says he hasn't the nerve himself. Speaking of old days—Any of the theatergoers of a decade ago must have had a memory jog if they chanced in the Burbank lobby between 9:30 and 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

Morosco camp down in his machine and found a willing but rather new hand on the ticket job, anxious to oblige, but obliging slowly, and therefore allowing the line to extend down past the Kerckhoff building.

Reminiscence came upon the international impresario strong, and thrusting the youth aside, he dusted up his rusty "How many, please!" and swung all his old battery of courteous invitation into line of battle.

It was a great sight, they tell me. He had gentleman No. 2 increasing his order by one seat before he had handed back the change to lady No. 1, and so on down the serpentine line.

This lasted for just thirty minutes, when the line broke.

He turned to his mail, opened three telegrams—and there was the line again.

Mr. Morosco thereupon said something reminiscent of the speeches of our army in Flanders and went upstairs.

It was his first daily with the sleight-pasteboards in nine years.

We may get that union depot. The Burbank Theater is going to have a telephone exchange.

That is, it is said the Burbank Theater will have a telephone exchange. Even the optimists only hope.

Wanting to see Frank Stammers yesterday afternoon, I went back on the Majestic stage.

He wasn't in sight, but instead I found the scenic crew, hard at work fastening down canvas, by the score of yards, for Brunton's waiting brush.

"Did you look downstairs?" asked Norman Heap, in the box office. "I hadn't, so I went back and looked downstairs. No Stammers, but the carpenter and another gang, making more noise than a boiler factory, building as if they were going to put in a Sardon play."

"Go up to 506," suggested the versatile Mr. Heap. "I went to 506, when the bi-weekly elevator came. No Stammers, but a musical director drilling Stammers's music into a lot of chorus symphs."

"Tried the room under the lobby," snickered Mr. Heap. "I tried it. No Stammers, but twelve chatters busily at work making costumes for Stammers's show."

What are they getting ready—a Metropolitan Operahouse production, or just "A Peck o' Pickles?"

I understand, by the way, that the new name, "Now and Then," will be used hereafter, but that the show will have to open under its original, homely cognomen, as all the paper is out with that title.

Elsie LeBlanc, Pop Fischer's new soubrette, is said to be a strong favorite in the fascination class.

Nick Larala's "Valse Maive," used in "Peg o' My Heart," is a wonderfully interesting little composition and among local writings probably has proven the best seller of the year.

Larala's friends hope to see more things from his imagination and fountain pen—and that before very long too.

J. Hartley Manners, the affluent au-

Eugenie Le Blanc.

Author of "Peg" received news yesterday that his dramatization of "Ganton & Co." called "The Great John Ganton," is to be done in London by George Fawcett, the American original.

Mr. Manners had but one comment on receipt of this intelligence: "Oh, Gawn—will they get it!"

Have no fear, Mr. Author. If they don't, you will.

BILL REIDY TALKS ABOUT DECISIONS.

"Some of you fellows down here seem to think that the San Francisco team gets all the best of the decisions," said Manager Bill Reidy of the Seals yesterday, "but I can't see any such thing. It's a cinch that we did not get any of the best of it last week and certainly none in the game today. I think the ump's just give the decisions as they see them and it's the break of the luck that every team gets."

"You cannot tell me anything about any team getting the best of it in the decisions and surely not the Seals. Probably if they had, they would not be now where they are in the percentage column."

Which may or may not be true.

MORAN VERY SORE.

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 30.—(Special Dispatch to the Times by Federal (Wireless) Line.) Owen Moran, who is just back from Los Angeles, returned some at the ring people out yonder. He says he received a raw deal from the referee, who disqualified him for fouling Jack White of Chicago, in the Vesper bout.

He had all the best of White and a trifle up my sleeve when I was unjustly disqualified," Moran says. He is ready to take on any lightweight that he can draw from the pack.
